

FEATURES

The AU-S-S1500U is a professional stage smoke machine designed to create dense and consistent fog effects for events, performances, and entertainment venues. Its strong output enhances lighting effects and adds depth to any atmosphere, making it ideal for stages, clubs, and live productions that require impactful visual environments.

Built with a durable construction and a clean, powder-coated finish, the AU-S-S1500U is designed for reliable performance in various conditions. Easy to operate and integrate, it offers flexible control options, allowing seamless use in different setups. Whether for professional shows or event applications, it delivers a powerful and dependable fog effect solution.

MAIN PARAMETER

|                     |                        |
|---------------------|------------------------|
| Input Voltage       | AC100–220V             |
| Frequency           | 50/60Hz                |
| Power               | 1500W                  |
| Lifespan            | 15,000 hours           |
| Type                | Stage smoke Machine    |
| Material            | Aluminum Alloy + Other |
| Control Method      | DMX512, AUTO           |
| Finish Type         | Powder Coated          |
| Install Style       | Ground Mount           |
| Working Temperature | -16°C to 39°C          |
| IP Rating           | IP25                   |